Mezaparks is a neighbourhood in North Central Riga, Latvia. The name is literally translated as 'forest park'. The park was built in the early 20th century and was originally called Kaiserwald. It was one of the world's first garden cities. One of the wealthier areas of Riga, the park hosts the Latvian Song and Dance Festival in late July every 4 years. Mezaparks is also host to the Riga Zoo and its lakeside locale allows for various water sporting activities. There is also an amusement park in Mezaparks, which makes the neighborhood a popular summer destination for Riga residents.

Very convenient transport system to Riga center and Old town. 10 minutes walk from the apartment to Riga Zoo and gym center.
