Description

Cozy, sunny, exclusive lounge apartment with the aura of an old library building.

The apartment is designed for people who know how to enjoy life and who appreciate the orderly and elegant environment that surrounds it.

The well-being of the tenant is ensured by comfortable furniture, a charming view from the windows to the trees of the Vermanes Park, photo wallpapers in the bedroom, a specially built-in glass shower, a large double bed and other apartment design elements. .

The staircase was restored according to the old sketches of the building with spectacular historical stained-glass windows and tiles. The historic elevator has also been restored.
