Description

For rent a luxury apartment in the Silent Centre, in the diplomatic area, overlooking one of the most beautiful and greenest parks in Riga - Kronvalda Park.

This Neo-Gothic style building was erected in 1878 according to the project of the Latvian architect J.F.Baumanis. The building underwent thorough reconstruction, and it has a small number of residents. There is a decorative garden at the main entrance of the building.

In the middle of the apartment, there is a spacious living room with a fireplace, serving both as a private area and for reception of guests. In turn, the kitchen and dining area is designed as a private zone of the hosts with special attention paid to the functionality of the room and the convenience of the owners. One balcony overlooks the other the courtyard. The apartment is rented including the furniture and the hi-end household appliances. >The apartment is situated in a quiet and safe area with easy reach of Riga's public and cultural life. At a short distance, there are favorite Riga restaurants and coffee-bars, as well as prestigious office and business centers. The very heart of Riga lies at a distance of 5 minutes, the Riga International Airport - 10 minutes.
