Description

Magnificent apartment in the center of Riga. The house has been renovated and is a unique example of the architecture of the Center of Riga.

Ten minutes walk from the Esplanade Park and Vermanes Gardens with fountains and gazebos, in a prestigious area. Nearby is the Old Town with architectural monuments and many restaurants, coffee houses and shops. Cozy, spacious and comfortable apartment on the 2nd floor, with high ceilings, the windows of the apartment overlook both to the courtyard and to the building facade, that allows to isolate from the noise of the city center. High-quality finishing, natural parquet, original antique furniture, new household appliances.

A spacious kitchen-dining room with sliding doors equipped with all the necessary equipment for cooking culinary dishes, a living room with a magnificent restored fireplace combined with a spacious dining room, spacious and comfortable office room, two comfortable bedrooms each with separate bathrooms, a spacious dressing room and an additional utility room.

The apartment is guarded round the clock, there is a free parking space in the courtyard of the house, the apartment can be accessed by stairs, but the house also has an elevator.
